Muhammad (SAW) was born on Monday, the 12th Rabiul Awwal (20th April in the year AD) 571. He belonged to the family of Quraish, the nobility of Arabia. His family traced back to Hazrat Ismail (AS) and Ibrahim (AS). His parents died by the time he was six years of age. His grandfather Abdul Muttlib took charge of him but he also died soon. Now the responsibility of looking after the Prophet (SAW) fell to his uncle Abu Talib. He loved his young nephew dearly and did all he could to rear him well. The Prophet (SAW) grew up to be so honourable and trustworthy that people called him Al-Amin.

Questions:

- Which family did Our Holy Prophet (SAW) belong to?
- When did His parents die?
- What was the name of His grandfather?
- How did Abu Talib bring up Our Holy Prophet?
- Why did people call Him Al-Amin?
