

Q. No.4. The rabbit is hiding behind the tree.

In this sentence the word “behind” is:

- a) Noun
- b) Verb
- c) Adjective
- d) Preposition

Q. No.5. A word that rhymes with “slow” is:

- a) grow
- b) how
- c) now
- d) who

Q. No.6. In the picture, the children are:

- a) walking
- b) sleeping
- c) writing
- d) playing

Q. No.7. Teacher: “What does your father do?”

Ali: “He is _____.”

- a) a engineer
- b) an engineer
- c) the engineer
- d) an engineers

Q. No.8. The boy is reading a story book. The word “reading” is:

- a) Noun
- b) Adverb
- c) Verb
- d) Pronoun

Q. No.9. Which one is a past continuous sentence?

- a) I am reading a book.
- b) They are reading a book.
- c) He was reading a book.
- d) She is reading a book.

Q. No.10. The sentence with correct use of capitalization is:

- a) the Teacher asked Ajmal to sit down.
- b) the teacher asked ajmal to sit down.
- c) The Teacher asked ajmal to sit down.
- d) The teacher asked Ajmal to sit down.

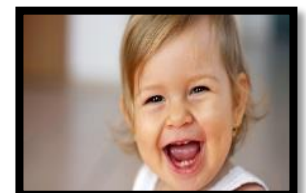

Q. No.11. “Sunflower” is:

- a) Adjective
- b) Compound word
- c) Verb
- d) Pronoun

Q. No.12. The sentence with correct punctuation is:

- a) I like mango, banana, orange and grapes.
- b) I like mango, banana, orange, grapes!
- c) I like mango and banana and orange, grapes.
- d) I like mango, banana, orange, grapes?

Q. No.13. The baby is happy. The word “happy” is:

- a) Noun
- b) Verb
- c) Adjective
- d) Pronoun

Q. No.14. The sentence with correct structure is:

- a) Ali plays football with his friends. b) Ali football plays with his friends.
c) Football Ali plays with his friends. d) Plays football Ali with his friends.

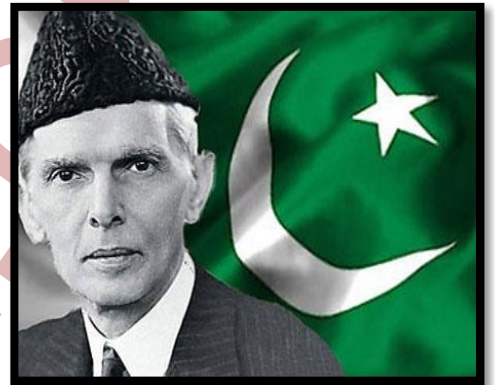

Q. No.15. “I go to the park twice a day.”

The correct question form of the above sentence is:

- a) Why do you go to the park? b) How do you go to the park?
c) Why don't you go to the park? d) How often do you go to the park?

✚ Read the paragraph carefully and answer the Q. No. 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20.

Quaid-e-Azam was born on 25th December, 1876. His name was Muhammad Ali. His father Jinnah Poonja was a businessman in Karachi. In 1884, he was enrolled in Sindh Madrassa-tul-Islam. He was a brilliant and hardworking student. He used to study late at night. One night when he was studying, his aunt said, “If you keep on studying like this you will fall ill.” Muhammad Ali Jinnah replied that if he did not work hard he would never be able to accomplish anything great. He focused on his studies and completed his education. He became the youngest barrister of India at the age of nineteen. He earned a good name by hard work. The Muslims gave him the title of “Quaid-e-Azam” because of his untiring efforts and rock like determination. Due to his hard work, Pakistan appeared on the map of world on August 14, 1947 as the largest Muslim state. The Muslims would never have achieved freedom if they had not a leader like Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Q. No.16. The paragraph is about:

- a) Jinnah Poonja b) Quaid's aunti
c) Quaid-e-Azam d) Sindh Madrassa-tul-Islam

Q. No.17. The word “completed” is formed by:

- a) complet + ed b) complete + d
c) comple + ted d) comp + leted

Q. No.18. The word “determination” means:

- a) thankfulness b) helplessness
c) purposefulness d) carelessness

Q. No.19. “Those who do not work hard can never accomplish anything great”, means:

- a) Hard work is a key to success. b) Achieve everything without hard work.
c) Do not work hard. d) Hard work accomplishes nothing.

Q. No.20. The topic sentence of this paragraph is:

- a) Quaid-e-Azam was brilliant and hardworking.
- b) If you keep on studying like this you will fall ill.
- c) Quaid-e-Azam's father Jinnah Poonja was a businessman of Karachi.
- d) In 1884, Quaid-e-Azam was enrolled in Sindh Madrassa-tul-Islam.

✚ Read the following lines carefully and answer the Q. No 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25.

The linnets play among the leaves,
At hide-and-peek and chirp and sing;
While, flashing to and from the leaves,
The swallows twitter on the wings.
And twigs that shake, and boughs that sway,
And tall old trees you could not climb,
And winds that come, but cannot stay,
Are singing gaily all the time.

Q. No.21. "Linnets" are:

- a) winds
- b) birds
- c) insects
- d) trees

Q. No.22. According to the stanza, who plays hide-and-peek?

- a) Linnets
- b) Leaves
- c) Swallows
- d) Wings

Q. No.23. According to the stanza, which thing was NOT singing:

- a) boughs
- b) trees
- c) winds
- d) time

Q. No.24. What does the word "gaily" mean?

- a) angrily
- b) sadly
- c) happily
- d) effectively

Q. No.25. Which line shows that the linnets were rushing here and there in the trees?

- a) And tall old trees you could not climb,
- b) While, flashing to and from the leaves,
- c) And winds that come, but cannot stay,
- d) Are singing gaily all the time.