A greedy mouse saw a basket full of corn. He wanted to eat the corn. So he made a small hole in the basket. He squeezed in through the hole. He ate a lot of corn. He felt full. He was very happy. Now he wanted to come out. He tried to come out through the small hole. He could not. His belly was full. He tried again. But it was of no use. The mouse started crying. A rabbit was passing by. It heard the mouse's cry and asked why it was crying. The mouse told the rabbit that he made a small hole and came into the basket. But later he was not able to get out through that hole. The rabbit said that it was because he ate too much. Now he should wait till his belly shrinks. The rabbit laughed and went away. The mouse fell asleep in the basket. The next morning his belly had shrunk. But the mouse wanted to eat some corn. So he ate and ate. His belly was full once again. He thought that he will go out from basket the next day. The cat was the next passerby. He smelt the mouse in the basket. He lifted its lid. He ate the mouse.
