  - (b) Written in Russell's usual style, The Conquest of Happiness gets straight to (10) (20) the point. Express your view point by giving relevant examples as evidence.
- Q. No. 3. "The Second Coming" is a magnificent statement about the contrary forces at work in history, and about the conflict between the modern world and the ancient. Elaborate. (20)

- Q. No. 5. Many critics take a deterministic view of Hamlet's plot, arguing that the prince's inability to act & his tendency toward melancholy reflection point to a "tragic flaw" that leads inevitably to his demise. Is this an accurate way of understanding the play? Given Hamlet's character & situation, would another outcome of the play have been possible?
- Q. No. 6. Edmund is really "a stranger who never feels at home, who does not really want and is not wanted, who can never belong, who must always be a little in love with death!"(20) What is the cause of Edmund's loneliness?
- Q. No. 7. The Scarlet Letter makes extensive use of symbols. Bring out some of the most striking (20) symbols and their significance in the novel.
- Q. No. 8. How does literary text in the Western canon reinforce or undermine colonialist ideology through its representation of colonization and/or its inappropriate silence about colonized people. (20)
