Conventions	Marks = 2	Mark = 0
Characterization	The main characters are named / clearly described using variety of direct and indirect techniques. In direct techniques adjectives will be describing words i.e. a sleepy lion, sound asleep, a naughty mouse, started jumping over the sleeping lion, etc. In indirect techniques the characters will be introduced indirectly i.e. a sleeping lion and mouse etc. The marker could explicitly understand the characters accurately.	It is hard to tell who the main characters are and there is little or no use of direct or indirect characterization techniques.
Setting	Same vivid, descriptive words are used to tell when and where the story took place. i.e. one summer/winter morning, a river in the midst of a deep and lonely forest, etc.	The marker has trouble figuring out when and where the story took place.
Plot	The story is very well organized. One idea or scene follows another in a logical sequence with clear transitions and twist.	Ideas and scenes seem to be randomly arranged.
Title of the Story	Relevant 2 Marks	Partial Irrelevancy 1 Mark	Irrelevant 0 Mark
	Completely relevant to the story and self-explicit in serving a context of the story.	Partially relevant to the story and partially self-explicit in context of the story.	Completely irrelevant to the story.
Originality	The story contains many creative details and woodcutter's emotional reaction that is consequence of his action.	There is little evidence of creativity in the story. The student does not seem to have used much imagination.
