

Sindh University extends exam form deadline for multiple programs

In a significant relief to students and affiliated colleges, the University of Sindh has announced a university-wide extension for the submission of examination forms for the First Semester Examinations 2025. The decision officially communicated through a series of circulars from the Controller of Examinations moves the deadline from October 28 to November 10, 2025 without any late fee.

The extension applies to a vast range of undergraduate and postgraduate programs across various faculties. Students studying in LLB (Hons) Part-I, MBA (Evening), MBA 4-Year, BBA (Hons), BS (Software Engineering) and BS (Information Technology), BS 4-Year programs including Mathematics, Commerce, English, Botany, Chemistry and Zoology, ADE and B.Ed (Hons) programs, BCS 3-Year Program and ADS (Botany) can fill-in their exam forms now by November 10 without any late fee.

The circulars issued separately by the Controller office stated that the decision was made in consideration of requests received from various affiliated colleges and institutes. All colleges have been directed to ensure the physical submission of the completed examination forms at the Controller's office by November 12, 2025, positively.

According to the Controller of Semester exams, all other terms and conditions for the examinations will remain unchanged as per the original notifications. This blanket extension is expected to provide ample time for a greater number of students to complete their examination formalities.
