

SU extends deadline for admissions to next higher classes

The Directorate of Admissions, University of Sindh has extended the deadline for submission of online admission forms and fee challans for enrollment to next higher classes for the academic year 2026.

According to a circular issued on Wednesday, students enrolled in Bachelor Degree Programmes (second, third, fourth and fifth year) as well as Master's final year — both morning and evening programmes — can now submit their online admission forms and pay the required fee until April 20, 2026, without any late fee.

After depositing the fee, students are required to print the online admission form and submit it along with the original paid challan and a copy of the marks certificate of the last semester to their respective campuses, teaching centres, institutes or departments for verification and recommendation.

According to circular, the admission fee can be paid through 1-Bill ID or OTC voucher at banks offering 1-Bill or 1-Link services, as well as through mobile banking applications including HBL Mobile and HBL Kconnect. After the deadline, a late fee of Rs. 1,000 will be charged.

The university also reiterated that for promotion to the next semester, students must maintain at least 75 percent attendance and a minimum GPA of 1.75 in the preceding two semesters.

According to the circular, student identity cards will be issued to the concerned departments and campuses after completion of the admission process.
